Screen finished, and some wall hanging pictures
May, 2013

Dear Friend,

Below is the finished photo of the screen collaboration I've been showing as work in progress. Take a look, then I have a favor to ask of you, my fans. I have registered with Houzz.com, which looks like a great networking tool for home related resources. What I'm asking is simple. Just click on this link

Three Quotes from Ovid

Here's the finished screen.
It's on display at the NHAA gallery on State Street in Portsmouth for one more week, then it moves to Sharon Arts Center in Peterborough for June, with the opening reception June 7. Response so far has been very enthusiastic, which is gratifying.

Some recent relief carvings for the wall

Lately I've been having fun making relief carved landscapes for the wall. They are like Tripettis, if you are familiar with that. Tiles mounted on a background that is framed like a painting. Three are of scenes on Mount Desert Island, and headed to the Gallery at Somes Sound, which is on MDI.

They are:

A Bridge on Somes Sound, two views of the Bass Head Light on MDI and the Pan Garden at St Gaudens Art Center in Cornish NH.

That's it for now.

Enjoy your summer.

Jeffrey
